Humaans is designed to keep people records and documents in a central place.
It helps People Ops automate tasks. It enables Finance to export payroll data in 2 clicks.
It provides a fast experience for employees to take time off, access personal and company information, and have visibility on teams and people.

"It's a simple, no-frills people tool"

Pleo is using Humaans to run their day to day People Operations with 180+ people distributed in 20 countries across the globe.

Things you can do with Humaans

🗂️ Employee records & documents in one place

Address and banking, contracts, salary, emergency contacts, dietary requirements, and more.

🏖️ Flexible Paid Time Off policies

Create unlimited policies – assign per office, per location, or at individual level.

👯 Create teams and projects

Set up cross functional teams and project to help people understand who's working on what.

📅 Who's away view

Have a holistic view of who is where, when and why, and integrate directly into your calendar.

🎉 Events view and weekly email digest

Track joiners, leavers, probations ending, birthdays, anniversaries – via email or Slack.

📊 Reporting

Quick access to people data to use for payroll or more granular analysis.

Free data migration and smooth transition – in days!

Moving away from old systems can be daunting (and expensive). We will walk you through it, and make the full process delightful for your entire team – free of charge.

Why Humaans and what's different

Zero on-boarding friction

Feel right at home, Humaans is fully self-service. And if you want to, we're here to help – even before day 1.

Simple yet powerful

Minimal on the surface, but with powerful features. We're working in the background, so you don't have to.

All about speed

Realtime API, best performance, keyboard shortcuts, and fast workflows. Value your time, don't waste it.

Remote and distributed friendly

Working from home teams, digital nomads, distributed offices? Worry not, Humaans caters for that too.

Not just a repository of information

Humaans is not a static people data container. We help leverage your data and automate workflows.

Design is king

We care about our users, and our product reflects that through a beautifully designed interface.
